

Gideon Nel, currently living in Somerset West, Cape Town, is experienced and professionally trained as an Intermediate Life Support Paramedic, fire fighter as well as in Aviation Health Care Provider. He furthered his studies as an Emergency Care Veterinary Provider in animal healthcare, and also as an Operational Medical Orderly. He is qualified as a Defensive Driving Instructor. Gideon has extensive knowledge and experience in all types of medical rescues whether at sea, air or road and included in this in all type of Hazmat situations. Gideon was also selected to be part of the 48th Expedition to the Antarctica program as a Medical Clinic

Orderly where after being trained at the Simonstown Naval Hospital in Pharmacology, Primary Clinical Care, Trauma (including endotracheal intubation), Orthopaedics, Physiotherapy, Psychiatry/Psychology, Ear, Nose and Throat, Radiography, Anaesthetics and Dental procedures. Gideon was also contracted as an Emergency Medical Practitioner by Mechem Demining through the United Nations to be deployed in Sudan. Later he was contracted in Central African Republic, Congo, Afghanistan and Iraq. He has in that time gained extensive experience and knowledge in all medical aspects including Primary Healthcare in a Clinic environment, responsible for the control and issuing of scheduled medication and drugs, all types of emergency medical care to patients which include local and expatriates deployed in various fields, treatment and preventative measures with regards to Tropical Diseases, performed Casevac procedures by sea and air rescue, and has trained many local and international candidates in various First Aid courses. In summary, Gideon is the founder of the Paramedics for Hire Company here in South Africa who provide extensive services to all organizations, companies and the public for All Events, Anytime, Anywhere!!!

